

What is Joshua Tree Center for Change?

Our Joshua Tree Center for Change program is the case management and treatment provider for San Bernardino's Drug Court. As such, we work collaboratively with other members of the Drug Court Team. Our treatment services include both group and individual counseling, and our case management services are provided for mental health, education, employment and community referral needs.

Mental Health Systems

How Can Joshua Tree Center for Change Help?

We assist drug court supervised individuals by providing substance abuse treatment and case management services. Our array of services help our clients achieve success in living a productive life that is free of criminal activity. Our experienced treatment staff understands the specific needs of court involved clients who wish to pursue a new and hopeful future without the use of mind altering substances, including alcohol.

What Are Our Services?

Our Joshua Tree Center for Change program offers both group and individual counseling services.

Our group services include skill building in areas such as:

- Relapse Prevention
- Socialization
- Family Education
- Early Intervention

Our individual sessions include:

- Intake and Assessment
- Crisis Intervention
- Treatment Planning

Case Management services are provided for:

- Mental Health
- Education
- Employment

Community agencies also provide services onsite on a quarterly basis. Those services can include:

- HIV/AIDS education, screening and referral
- Hepatitis C education, screening and referral

Our counselors are community-oriented and maintain a complete list of community referrals to meet client needs.

How Do We Get Referrals?

All our referrals come from the San Bernardino Superior Court. If a defendant is deemed eligible to receive drug court services, the court clerk provides the individual with a referral and sends him or her to our program.

Who Do We Serve?

We provide treatment services to individuals who have been convicted of drug charges or charges that can be directly linked to substance abuse. Referrals from the Superior Court are presumed to have a personal drug abuse history and show signs that they can benefit from our treatment services.
